NONCOMPLIANCE SUMMARY

On August 29, 2024, Mr. Johnson appeared before the Court for a Violation of Supervised Release hearing. He was found in violation, and his supervised release was extended 18 months with the addition of a special condition to include 4 months of location monitoring.

On October 19, 2024, the above-named individual failed to adhere to the conditions of the location monitoring program, specifically, not charging the GPS tracker to maintain a fully charged battery allowing the tracker to die.

On October 22, 2024, Mr. Johnson was verbally reprimanded for the above-noted infraction. At this time, we are not recommending any court action to be take; however, we are requesting the Court allow this notice to serve as an official written reprimand. Should further non-compliance occur, the Court will be promptly notified.

Respectfully submitted,

SUSAN M. SMALLEY, Chief
U.S. Probation Officer
